BOXERMAN TO BE PANELIST AT 2018 ABA WHITE COLLAR CRIME INSTITUTE

Posted on February 26, 2018 by Sanford J. Boxerman

Category: Presentations
Tag: Sandy Boxerman

On Wednesday, February 28, 2018, Sanford J. Boxerman will participate in a panel at The 32nd Annual National Institute on White Collar Crime. The panel is entitled, "Significant Legal Developments in the Regions," and Sandy will be discussing the "Central and Midwest Regions." The panel will discuss new developments and trends in the region to better inform attorneys of case opportunities, contacts, strategies, and arguments being used to litigate these types of cases.

The 32nd annual event, presented by the American Bar Association Center for Professional Development and Criminal Justice Sections, brings together some of the nation's leading federal and state judges and prosecutors, law enforcement officials, defense attorneys, corporate in-house counsel and members of the academic community. Attendees and presenters represent top members of the white collar bar in the United States and abroad.

The choice of a lawyer is an important decision and should not be based solely upon advertisements.

For additional information about the 32nd Annual National Institute on White Collar Crime, please visit the event page or the event program.

The choice of a lawyer is an important decision and should not be based solely upon advertisements.